ASSOCIATION OF BRITISH MEMBERS OF SWISS ALPINE CLUB.

OBJECTS, Etc., OF ASSOCIATION.

CONSTITUTION.

1. NAME.

The name of the Association shall be 'The Association of British Members of the Swiss Alpine Club.'

2. OBJECTS.

- (a) To encourage British Alpinists to support the Swiss Alpine Club in all its work, by becoming members of a section of that body.
- (b) To collect funds and present to the S. A. C. a Club hut, and for such other purposes as the Association may from time to time determine.
- (c) To form a body able to present a collective opinion to the S. A. C. on any question of Alpine interest.
- (d) To promote among British members the sociability which is so conspicuous a feature of the Swiss sections, but from which we are necessarily debarred by living at a distance from the headquarters of our sections.

Members.—1. Ordinary. The qualification for ordinary membership shall be 'membership of some section of the S. A. C.'
2. Honorary. To be elected at the discretion of the Committee.

3. SUBSCRIPTION.

The Annual Subscription to the Association shall be 5/- per annum. The payment of £2 2s. shall be considered as equivalent to the annual payment of 5/-.

Annual subscriptions shall be due on 1st January of each year, and any member whose subscription shall not have been paid on or before 1st April shall cease to be a member of the Association, but may be reinstated on payment of arrears, at the discretion of the Committee.

4. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS.

There shall be two General Meetings in the year, viz., The Annual General Meeting and a dinner in December, a more informal meeting in June, and such winter meetings as the Committee may think fit.

RULES.

The Draft Rules, passed in December, were referred to the Committee. They are now being revised, and will be printed before the Annual General Meeting next December.

HOW TO BELONG TO SWISS ALPINE CLUB.

Those who do not yet belong to the Swiss Alpine Club and desire to do so, can be put up at once, even if they do not wish to belong to our Association. They should write to one of our Honorary Secretaries, J. A. B. Bruce, Selborne Lodge, Guildford, or G. A. Steel, 16, Argyll Mansions, Addison Bridge, Kensington, W., and state whether they wish to join a French, German, or Italian speaking section. The subscription varies slightly in the various sections, but is not more than 16 francs a year and 10 francs entrance fee.

ADVANTAGES OF BELONGING TO THE SWISS ALPINE CLUB.

Members of the Club obtain reductions on certain Swiss Railways (e.g., half-price on Zermatt Railway); half-price at certain Huts; a RIGHT of entry at the Club Huts, instead of being there on SUFFERANCE; a fortnightly paper and monthly magazine (French), free; the Jahrbük, a well-illustrated Annual, half-price, and other advantages.

A good feeling is created amongst the Swiss when they see British climbers, who use their Huts, contributing to their support by becoming members of the S.A.C.

INSURANCE OF GUIDES.

The S.A.C. contributes one half the cost of insurance, if the guide pays the other half.

SWISS CLUB HUT FUND.

The following are the 1st and 2nd lists of subscriptions to the Club Hut to be given by the British to the Swiss, as a token of friendship and appreciation of their kind hospitality. The Treasurer, C.E. King-Church, Clive Lodge, Albury, Surrey, will be glad to receive further subscriptions. The Central Committee of the Swiss Alpine Club have consented to build the hut in whatever place is considered most suitable, and to name it in a manner that will show its origin. The estimated cost of a good hut is £500. It has been suggested that the names of subscribers might be placed in the hut. A meeting of subscribers will be held before the site is determined on, and to ascertain their views on all these matters.
